Crosspoint is an interdenominational, nonprofit private school with 398 students in grades preschool through 12th grade and employs 56 teachers and support staff. All students are provided with opportunities to reach academic success, participate in sports, music, theater, media arts, and worship. Tuition assistance is provided to students who might otherwise not be able to attend.

Participation in community service and development of strong Christian character in a supportive environment also contribute to the success of Crosspoint graduates.

Each year, Night of Blues has been able to reach its $60,000 goal due to the generosity of local businesses, private donors, current families, alumni, and event attendees. Crosspoint welcomes your support in helping it be a light in the Klamath community.
